We Serve! That's our motto. There are opportunities aplenty as we have the Holiday Fest (12/5/6/7) (Jon Morgan), and the auction 2/8 (Nancy Sullivan) coming up rapidly. I expect each of you to do your part as your schedule and stamina can provide.

A Lion in "good standing" is a Lion who actively engages. Please contact Tia Famularo (resource coordinator) with a generous block of time (2-4 hours), especially on Sunday 12/7. The arrival of the Red Sox World Series Trophy for the event adds even more resource needs. Please step up!

The Evite Process and Meals

Please remember that we must gauge the number of Lions expected for meetings and meals. Would you like to plan a dinner with friends and suddenly a bunch of unexpected folks arrive? Answer your Evites, or respond to the calling committee please. We appreciate your consideration here. The Meals Committee, led by Veronica Lamb are working hard to get quality meals at a reasonable cost and need your cooperation. See the picture at left of the team at work.

planning for the 50th anniversary of the Rink later in the year kicks off as well. Please talk to Bill Palmer, John Mallers or me if you can help here. We're trying to engage with the Town, local groups, and Mr. Woods to broaden support of this important facility.

Thrift Store

Thrift Store team continues to work every week and could really look at committed people to provide coverage. I will propose a signup sheet for people to register for one shift a month-on the sales floor, or in "logistics". Please talk to Harry Lynd in the interim. Consider this an ongoing effort that needs your participation.

See you at the meetings or at the events.

Rockery Cleanup

By Matt Soeldner

It was a beautiful day in downtown Easton, a beautiful day for raking. Yes, again, the weather cooperated for the yearly cleanup of the Rockery and surrounding grounds of the Oakes Ames Hall and the Library. With the help of almost 2 dozen people manned with rakes, a snow shovel, and leaf blowers the work was completed in just under 2 hours. This includes the time standing around drinking coffee and eating donuts (well earned).

I would like to thank those who were there and if I forgot anyone please forgive me—I am not as smart as I look. Matt Cioffi, Dennis Gutman, Jim Lee, Bob Moulton, Jorge Cortizo, Tony Cabral, Tony D'Ambrosio, John Hayes, Bob Grella, Don Sierra, Ed Hands, Nancy Sullivan and her grandson Kyle, Kevin McIntyre, Ed Pires, Bob Cuhna, Jon Morgan, Rob Goodrich, Patty Somers, Scott Kudcey, Bill Palmer, Ken Love, Lee Waxman and yours truly. The fact that we had 5 leaf blowers made the work that much easier, thank you to all that brought them.

Holiday Fest. Manpower

Participate in the Holiday Parade

By Bill Palmer

As part of the Village Festival of Lights, the Annual Holiday Parade, with Santa Claus leading the way, will start at 1:00 pm (assembly begins at 12:30 pm) at the Easton Village Shoppes/Washington Plaza (Corner of Rte. 138 – Washington Street- and Main Street). The parade runs down Main St through the Rockery and ends past the library on North Main St.

If you, your family, your organization or you know of a group or business that would like to participate in the parade all are welcome. We'd love to have your business vehicle, a float, a decorated car, truck, wagon, bicycle, just march in, or whatever, to be a part of this festive event! This is an opportunity to be imaginative and get your business or group in front of townspeople. There is no need to contact Anne Martin our parade chair-person, but if you have questions or want to participate and don't know how, please contact Anne Martin at 508-238- 6704 (home) or 508-294-5409 (cell) or by e-mail, rickmartin2x@gmail.com.
