The Easton Lions Recognition Night stems from a program started in 1961 by the Easton chapter of the Jaycees (also known as the Easton Junior Chamber of Commerce). The Jaycees program was called "Easton's Outstanding Young Man", which honored men between the ages of 21 to 35. This event was started by the Past President of the Easton Jaycees and later President of the Easton Lions Club, Al Soucia. There was no "Recognition Night" held in 1970 and Al Soucia brought the program to the Easton Lions Club in 1971 where the scope of honorees was expanded.

The Lions are proud to have hosted the Recognition Night Banquet since 1971. The Lions motto is "We Serve" and we have been serving Easton for 85 years, since 1931. Congratulations to this year's honorees.
